WE SHARE THE GENEROSITY

All Operating Profits from The Hotel at Oberlin support scholarships at Oberlin College. Providing scholarships for students for many years to come.

GREEN INITIATIVES

Built to incorporate renewable energy systems and other innovative technologies. The Hotel at Oberlin is designed to meet the US Green Building Council's LEED Platinum Rating, making it one of the most environmentally sustainable hotel projects in the US.

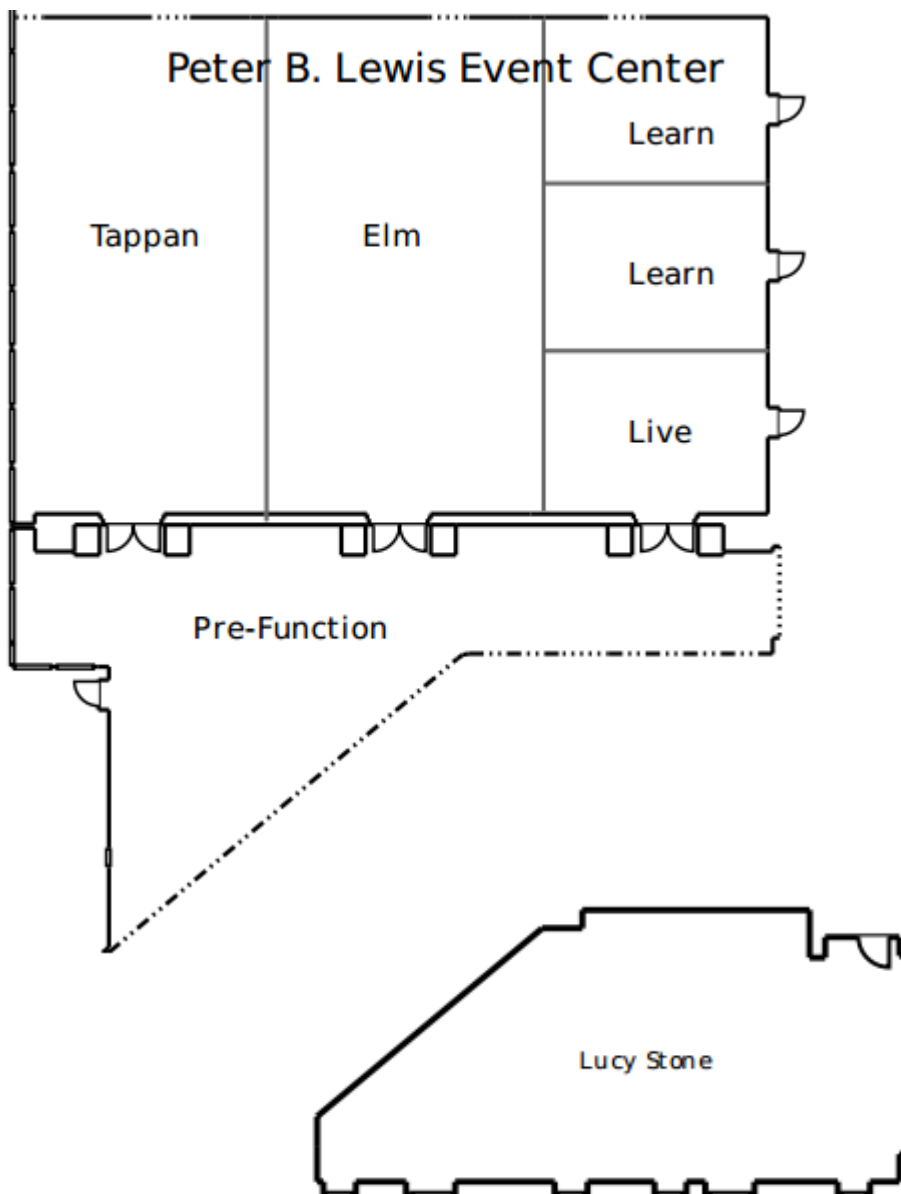

The property anchors the Peter B. Lewis Gateway Center, the cornerstone of Oberlin's Green Arts District, an ongoing development conceived by the City and College to transform Oberlin into a model for environmentally aware economic development based on education and the arts.

Using locally sourced materials and thoughtful, provocative design, The Hotel at Oberlin is a celebration of community's rich history and progressive vision toward the future.
